

PLEASING PROGRAM
IN LADIES' MEETING

Good Rains About Tulsa.
TULSA, Okla., May 31.—Crops in the Arkansas Valley of Oklahoma were wonderfully benefited by the soaking rains of the last night's storm. The greatest boon came to wheat, which was short of moisture from lack of snow last fall. Many fields of wheat regarded as practically worthless will be a good promise a fair 1932 crop. Corn and wheat in rows.

BALLINGER Compress Does Well.
BALLINGER, Tex., May 14.—The local compress owned by the Texas Compress Company, with headquarters at Waco, pressed up 53,000 bales for the fiscal year just closing. It was the first year a high rate of new press, the old press having burned down more than a year ago. The cotton acreage in this county is the greatest in its history and was made up 100 per cent cotton in this particular section.

extraordinary for him to call in our House the politics that we as Americans have as we Americans with a confidence that we as Americans can do better than Americans interested in doing some for signs country to see a because of his success. The man who has been
